INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the management of Foundation "Caucasus Institute for Pease, Democracy and Development"

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Cash Receipts and disbursements of Caucasus Institute for Pease, Democracy and Development's (hereinafter - Organization) Project # 20140207 "Local Initiatives for Local Development" for the period from 1 February 2015 to 31 July 2015 and summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. The statement of cash receipts and disbursements has been prepared by management according to the policies disclosed in the note 5.2 (Accounting Policies).

Management's responsibility for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this statement of cash receipts and disbursements in accordance with the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting; This includes determining that the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statement under the circumstances, and for the such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the statement of cash receipts and disbursements that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of cash receipts and disbursements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with international Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the statement of cash receipts and disbursements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the statement of cash receipts and disbursements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the statement of cash receipts and disbursements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the organization's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the statement of cash receipts and disbursements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Agreement of Cooperation referred to the Project #20140207 has been adhered to. The Project Funds have been used exclusively for the purpose of the Project in accordance with the Agreement of Cooperation (including Letter of Approval, the Schedules of Budgeted expenses and Sources of Income) entered into by The Organization and Bread for The World - Protestant Development Service (hereinafter - Brot) on promoting the above mentioned Project. The statement of cash receipts and disbursements for the period from 1 February 2015 to 31 July 2015 referred to above reflects a true and fair view of the financial affairs of the Project.

Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting of the Organization. The statement of cash receipts and disbursements are prepared to provide information to Donors. As a result, the statement may not be suitable for another purpose.
